I got a call yesterday night from Latham. A few states called them saying they've collected enough statement about regulators, regulations and our regulatory position from Celsius employees, and they also mentioned the AMA, to issue cease and desist and all US states immediately. They said it's the last time they warn us before taking a very aggressive action.

Time to settle with SEC. CEL won't survive this.

They mentioned the Twitter live and the AMA, saying employees (not necessarily you) are saying 'nothing will change, regulators just want to understand our model and don't really have a problem with us, we don't see any problem with what we do'. They said they don't expect us to be quite (they're fine with the blogpost, that was approved by Latham), but they don't want us to say it's nothing and everything will stay the same. This is why NJ pushed back on giving us an extension (but they eventually did. Updated me yesterday night).
